

University preparation

How do I get my son into Harvard?
How do I get my daughter into Oxford or Cambridge? How do I get any of my children into the finest universities in the English speaking world? Now, for the first time in the Emirates, education specialists Intelligent Gulf and ISIS, the British education group, are going to provide some answers to those questions. Stage one of the programme is rolled out in Dubai from April 10th to 12th at Knowledge Village. Students who wish to apply to some of the most prestigious colleges in the United Kingdom and America will be given three days of intensive tuition to guide them in their choice of universities and get expert advice on their applications. The workshop is designed to assist students with admissions to Oxbridge/Ivy league - names which connote academic excellence and selectivity in admissions. Phase Two of the programme - the residential World University Preparation Course is at Corpus Christi College, University of Cambridge from June 27th to July 18th 2009. This is a more intensive and more detailed version of the three-day event in Dubai. Students will be rigorously prepared for all aspects of the Oxbridge or US Ivy League application process; the forms, the essays, the personal statements, the relevant entrance exams and, crucially the interview. They will have the opportunity to interact with advisors from Fulbright commission, admissions team from Oxford, Cambridge and from top American Universities. The workshop is being held from 10th to 12th April at Block 15 University of Wollongong, Knowledge Village. An open house seminar will be held on 12th April from 4pm to 7pm. This will be free of cost for all parents, students, school counsellors, student advisors, scholarship and government bodies not attending the workshop.
