For more than half a century, Beijing Language and Culture University (BLCU), located at the heart of Beijing’s higher education hub, has always been a leading liberal arts university in China with 12,000 students from all over the world in undergraduate, graduate and language training programs.

BLCU is home to advanced research and teaching in languages, cultures, arts and social sciences. From teaching Chinese language to speakers of other languages to international politics and business, BLCU brings ideas and brilliant minds together, inspiring global communications and exchanges with real impact today and in the future.

As home to world’s largest Chinese language program for international students, BLCU has trained about 280,000 international students from 183 countries and regions since its founding in 1962. BLCU embraces its connections to the world and encourages partnerships in language teaching and culture promotion. With overseas education centres and academic partnerships spanning the globe, BLCU is shaping the future of the world.
BLCU boasts eight disciplines including literature, economics, law, engineering, history, education, management and art. BLCU now has one post-doctoral research station, 16 Ph.D. programs, 33 master degree programs, and 30 undergraduate programs. Among these programs, there is one national key discipline and ten Beijing key disciplines.

ELIGIBILITY
Double Major Double Degree
BLCU has adopted a flexible credits system. Undergraduate students majoring in Chinese Language are allowed to choose a second degree (or major), e.g. International Economics and Trade, after two years of study. As long as they complete the required credits, they will earn double degrees or double majors.

Studying in a Third Country
BLCU has formed partnership with more than 321 universities and educational institutes of 58 countries, and has co-established joint programs with over 50 universities from around 20 countries including US, UK, France, Germany, Spain, Australia, Netherland, Japan and South Korea. This partnership makes it possible for the degree students to go to the third country to study relevant courses and earn transferable credits. BLCU organizes various Study Abroad programs during summer and winter holidays. These programs provide all the students with an opportunity to study in famous universities and colleges in US, UK, Italy, Japan, South Korea, Malaysia, and other countries, and experience their diversified cultures.

Global BLCU
BLCU has co-founded 18 Confucius Institutes and a Confucius Classroom around the world, and established three overseas Chinese language centers in Japan, South Korea and Thailand respectively. These overseas institutions offer not only Chinese language courses to local students, but also various kinds of scholarships supporting the students to come to BLCU for further study.

Field Trips in China
Field trip is an important part of BLCU curriculum for international students, through which students can have a better understanding of China and its colorful and diversified cultures. Some of the most popular destinations are Gengma Autonomous County of Dai and Wa ethnic minorities in South China’s Yunnan province, National Museum of Chinese Writing, Chenjiagou, the birthplace of Tai-chi, Lacshie Teahouse, Geely Auto Company, Yuan Lengping Rice Research Institute and “Project Hope” primary schools in Sichuan province. Besides, BLCU has several language training and practicing programs with institutions in Beijing and other cities, such as Guild Hall of Hunan and Guangxi Province, and Language Museum in Anyang City.

Working in China
Thanks to the close relationship with Embassies, MNCs, Confucius Institutes and other platforms, BLCU is able to offer its students, via its career center and on-line job information plateform, a large number of internship opportunities in TV stations, publishing houses, exhibition companies, as well as primary and secondary schools. Those opportunities cover jobs in the area of language teaching, finance and banking, IT, media, translation, and tourism.

You Are the Next Chinese Star
BLCU encourages its international students to take part in various Chinese language competitions and talent shows, such as the Chinese Bridge, CCTV Chinese Star Competition, Chinese debate contest, interpreting contests, singing competitions and festivals of international culture, and has reaped quite a number of champions in various Chinese language contests. Many of the contesters have now become household names in China.

STUDYING IN BLCU
EXPLORING LIMITLESS OPPORTUNITIES
BLCU is located in Zhongguancun Science and Technology Park, covering an area of 38 hectares and boasting a quiet and comfortable garden-like environment.

The university is fully equipped with advanced teaching facilities. All the classrooms are air-conditioned and installed with infrared listening systems and multimedia devices. Language labs, sound labs, multi-functional classrooms and simultaneous interpretation classrooms are all available for students’ use.

Students’ dorms on-campus are clean and tidy, offering several types of single room and twin room to international students. The newly-constructed building complex has an auditorium which can hold up to 1,000 people. Students have access to a wide variety of foods on campus, such as Chinese, western, Japanese, Korean, Southeast Asian, and Muslim (halal) food.

There are a range of sport venues including a football field, basketball courts, volleyball courts and tennis courts. The sports center contains an indoor swimming pool, several badminton courts, ping-pong rooms, bowling rooms and a fitness center.

Health center, ICBC branch, post office, supermarkets, laundry stores can also be found on campus.

BLCU is at the hub of Wudaokou district. It is closely connected to other parts of the city by subway Line 13 and Line 15, and Bus 307, 311, 331, 375, 429, 508, 562, 86. A taxi ride from the University to Beijing Capital International Airport only takes about 50 minutes.
